

Socrates was born around 470 BC, in ~~May~~ in a wealthy family. He studied philosophy, he fought battles, so that's why he ^(Greece) was as a soldier. At the age of 35, he started to teach. Later he married Xanthippe & he continued to teach lessons for free even if the students were very wealthy. One day three people complained on Shri Socrates and ^{the Government} told him to drink a poison and he drank because he knew that soul ^{was} immortal but not death. He taught that we ^{on} should not care about wealth but about soul. He had lived in righteousness and died in righteousness. After he died, the people punished the complainers and felt bad for Shri Socrates's death.

prophet muhammad was born ⁱⁿ 570 AD in Mecca he was raised by his uncle as his mother died when he was 8 years old. He married ~~the~~ Khadija at the age of 25. They had 6 children but only 4 of them survived. When he was 40, Gabrial, ^{also} called jibril, told ^{him} to meditate. He received god's message as koran verses.

He taught that God is one and we should not pray to idols and Abraham, Moses, & Jesus & also Mary ^{Shri} should be respected. The government of it not like this. killed ^s his wife and ~~ance~~. He went to Madina, and occupied mecca, & won mecca. His son in law, ~~hasnat~~ ~~wrote korah~~, as prophet muhammad cannot read/write.

Has^zat ali, phatima, and their sons sons hasan and hasan were all murdered.

Guru Nanak was born ~~in~~ⁱⁿ 1464 in Punjab. His dad asked him ~~to~~^{to} work on land. Once his father asked him to work in the fields but instead he meditated. After ^{later} he taught that "if we love god then god will love us" to the people who lived in India, Madina, Turkey, Arabia and beyond. His teachings were written in the book called 'Adi Granth'. He died at the age of 69. People who follow his teachings are called 'Sikhs'.

Shri saihath was born as a mystery. He is believed he ~~is~~^{to be} found selu ~~born~~ ~~in~~ selu, maharashtra at ^{the} age 4 or 5 in 1859.
Shri saihath arrived in the village of shirdi around 1870. ~~He~~ who practiced yoga exercises and sand lived in a ~~mosque~~^{mosque}. He got gifts and gave to the poorest people. One day he asked ^{someone} to give oil for a lamp but ^{they} gave water. ^{and he still lit the lamp with water.} He taught that "if you stretch your palms to me, I will be with you".